South Florida is getting ready. This book can help you begin to plan for an emergency in your neighborhood or around the city. Turn the pages to find out how you can get ready, too!

Do you live in Key West, Fort Lauderdale, Palm Beach or Miami? They are all great places to live and be! There’s always something going on and some things we can’t foresee.

The Mayor knows just what to do. The schools are also wise. It’s our turn now to plan for our emergencies, like fires and storms. Happens, yes it’s true. But knowing what to do here is what we all must do.

Emergencies, like fires and storms, happen, yes it’s true. But knowing what to do here is what we all must do.

Because we never can be sure exactly what will happen, yes it’s true. But knowing what to do here is what we all must do.

So get ready, South Florida. It’s the smart and safe thing to do! Find out more, turn the pages!
Let's Get Ready South Florida!

Is your family prepared in an emergency?

1. Sit down with your family to create a plan for how to handle an emergency. If families stay in touch with each other, you can volunteer and donate to get things solved.

2. Make a list of phone numbers as soon as you can. Include your family and those who may need a hand. Make a list of phone numbers as soon as you can.

3. There’s no fridge or stove when the light switch quits. Prepare canned goods, water, and flashlight (pick flashlights several days before an emergency) so always help your mom and dad PREPARE A KIT.

BE InFORMED
- Identify how local authorities will notify you during an emergency and how you will get information. Also, your family will get information. Also, you will receive information.
- Keep in contact with your family, plan to make an appointment, and plan to stay in touch with each other. Contact your local Red Cross or Citizen Corps group to find out how you can help.
- Make a list of phone numbers as soon as you can. Include your family and those who may need a hand.

MAKE A PLAN
- Draw your family and make a plan for how to handle an emergency. Families can do it with their own family and those who may need a hand.
- Make a list of phone numbers as soon as you can. Include your family and those who may need a hand.
- Make a list of phone numbers as soon as you can. Include your family and those who may need a hand.

GET A KIT
- In an emergency, you may need to stay home. In this case, you need enough supplies for at least three days. Keep these items in a container or bag and store it safely. Your Emergency Kit should include:
- Water: One gallon of drinking water per person per day
- Food: Nonperishable, ready-to-eat canned foods and manual can opener
- A cell phone should work in an emergency as long as it's charged.
- A phone that does not need electricity to work. Most landlines need electricity.
- A first-aid kit, flashlight and whistle
- Nonperishable, ready-to-eat canned foods and manual can opener
- One gallon of drinking water per person per day
- Water: One gallon of drinking water per person per day
- Food: Nonperishable, ready-to-eat canned foods and manual can opener

GET INVOLVED
- Help your Community prepare for disasters.
- Contact your local Red Cross or Citizen Corps group to find out how you can help.
- Donate cash or goods to those who have been affected by a disaster.